

FADE IN:HOME

We see a shot of the earth, It's different, maybe some other. Maybe the rules are different. We see travelling inside it.

1 INT/EXT. HOUSE - ALICE.

1

A quote appears.

"In the end, we all are merely a story!!"

A dark night Alice drinking that Rum he couldn't afford. Maybe it's the last of his money left in his account. We see vintage cars on the streets.

(We see a shot of an apartment, and a rum glass in Alice's hand.)

All of his savings and money are going into fall. The last story was not captivating, as regarded the publisher. After the drop down of 2nd story, he started making shows. Which flopped badly. His first ever story got published and was one of the best but due to his repetitive idea of the same, he couldn't manage to make audience attention and was going low on money.

(Reads his reviews very calmly but sophisticatedly. Bad and uncanny reviews are in for his last book.)

Well, in anguish he throws away the book and that rum glass for which he was winning.

(We see him going to a fancy house like place more like a club.)

Sometimes he used to sell himself in the brothel house, sometimes bartendership, some times for sex.

(We see him lying on the bed, cut to the money which is thrown to him on his face by the people.)

It was never meant to but he had to.

CUT TO: RICHARD'S PLACE

2 INT. SMALL HOUSE - DUSK

2

We see 2 chairs aligned with the sofas. Both Alice and Richard is sitting and Richard having the first sip where Alice is on his 3rd. The anger and frustration both seems on Alice's face which make his friend Richard a little bit nervous. Richard was an Attendee of the National Science Congress, Germany.

RICHARD

Okay!! Why?! I mean what is up with you ?? Why are you soo soo tensed. And please stop drinking. What happened?

(Alice gives an infuriating look.)

ALICE

You don't know?! Or you just act like you don't know. Or science has made you forget everyone including your best friend. You dumbass!!!!

RICHARD

Calm the fuck down. Okay!! I know. It's ok maybe this time you're not thinking properly for the next book or idea about your next event. But you'll get it?! It's Okay sometimes to be not okay. As a creative artist you shouldn't think about money!! You should always think about creating something which the audience loves you know!!

ALICE

Dude, I shit in my pants sometimes. (He sobs) My life has become hell and there's no place for me in anywhere. I have my home loans, the shows which isn't gonna premiere due to low audience, My book!! Motherfucker my book!! (He cries). That isn't gonna publish cause I don't have a fucking idea about my next. Dude I sell myself to people, I've become a Man Whore. Does That seem Ok to you?!

Richard was a nice man and a friend. He listened to him.

ALICE

My age, brother I'm aging like hell. Till what time I'll be famous and at what point in my life I am gonna make it big.

(He drinks and drinks and drinks.)

Richard as a great companion felt him.

CUT TO: ALICE'S APARTMENT

3 INT. ALICE APARTMENT

3

Alice was asleep, and Rickard drops him that night.

FADE IN: NEXT DAY

4 INT. ALICE APARTMENT

4

Alice wakes up. Richard was sitting in front of him.

Richard pass a glas of water.

RICHARD

Take this c'mon.

(While drinking.)

Look I get you ok!! I just came here to help you. Now, listen to me very very carefully. There's a person I know who can help you and maybe he can give you something.
Just go to this address.(Hands him a paper.)

Tell him "Time has come. Overrule Now!!". I helped him once. He'll help you.

CUT TO: ADDRESS

5 INT. APARTMENT - DAY

5

Well it was an astonishing apartment which was build different, looked like a well established person.

Knocks!!

ALBERT

Yes!!

ALICE

Hey, Richard sent me to you.
Alice!!

ALBERT
Ohh, yes yes. He told me about you.
Come make yourself comfortable.
Something to drink?!

ALICE
Anything but I prefer rum!!

They sit and drink, judging by the way Alice was drinking,
he got the tension vibe.

ALICE
Listen!! Coming to you straightforward, I need something.
Speaking frankly an idea!! That could change the world, that could change my world. I am fucked up man!! Look at me, I aging like a pig. Dude, listen to me. I need you to give me that can alter the reality of my past, present and future. This could be my last chance, I may not get time after this. The drinking habit can kill me anyday.

Albert was a famous scientist also names as Albert Einstein. But Alice couldn't recognise. And we get that.
Isolation made him forget his family. It was not surprising he didn't know the famous Scientist of that generation.

ALICE
Also Richard told me to convey you, "Time has come. Overrule Now!!".

ALBERT (Albert stops drinking after listening to this line.) You know Richard has a huge debt on me. It wouldn't be possible if he wasn't there. I would help you. I'll give you the thing you're craving for.
Give me a few time. Come tomorrow.
We'll be having a bourbon with that.

CUT TO: THE NEXT DAY

Well, The apartment was locked the other day.No one knew where Albert was gone. After a few days Alice came and tried opening the door in anguish. But it opened from inside.

ALBERT

I was in the bathroom you idiot.You should knock before breaking in.

ALICE

You asshole!! You told me to come the other day and left me in dark. I'm gonna kill you motherfucker.

ALBERT

Okay!! First of all I don't support bad languages. And secondly look over there.

Albert points at the table there's a machine. Hidden inside a cloth.

Albert removes the cloth and we see antique piece of well constructed machine. It was beautiful. One would buy it for $100.

ALBERT

Sorry for the inconvenience but I had to rush for this. It takes time to, you know, bring and look at the dark past.

Alice gazed and was mesmerised by just looking at the charm of that machine.

Tachyonic Antitelephone. The name of this beauty.

ALICE

Techno.. What?!

ALBERT

(He repeats.)You see in science which you know very less. There's a particle known as tachyon particle. Which is sub atomic.

ALICE

Okay!? Shut the fuck up and tell me what it does.

ALBERT

This machine had changed my destiny. It will change your's too. You see we had a community where we used to research on about the reality of this universe. By extending we made this device which can phone your past.

Alice is shocked.

ALBERT

Here is a 3 page rule book, and here is the idea on the envelope. This device can be used only once at a time. The chances were 2 but first chance has been used. You just have to make it right the only one time. No chances give or take.

ALICE

Did it work?! The first time did it work?

ALBERT

Well, it did. The less you know. The less you are in danger. (He smiles and conveys)

Albert being a sharp mind told him the actual rules and the idea to tell him to his past. But in the mind he knew, he was none other than a drinker and a psychotic. He could've alter reality in some greedy manner. So he just explains him only 90% of the rules. By the rules phone would only work for about 40 secs. By the time he has to tell the idea of and hang up. Otherwise It wouldn't work.

ALBERT

I've told you everything. But Alice remember, it will alter reality. And you got one last chance. Call!! Tell!! and hang up until 40 secs.

It took him no time to take come to his apartment.

He was shivering like a pig in snow.

ALICE

Okay let's change this motherfucking reality.

He takes that machine and take out the envelope and starts dialling the same number he had when he was young.

He dials and a child picks a call, He tell him to just note it down don't say anything.

He tells each and every idea written in that envelope.

And he awaits till the next day.

CUT TO: NEXT MORNING

6 EXT. AROUND BILLBOARDS

6

The next day the world was changed, everything, like it was a dream come true. His attempt was successful. But was it real?! Each and everything was changed, except his present. Every billboard has a name which only named David Copperfield. One of the greatest magician ever lived.

He was shocked like hell. He couldn't breathe. He was the person who was not shocked at him mother's death. But today was the day for him. His hearts pounding hard.. hard.. and ..

THE END.
